Dear Colleague:

On behalf of the Suffolk Academy of Law and the Suffolk County Bar Association I want to thank you for your assistance and extraordinary service as a volunteer judge in New York State's 2014 Statewide High School Mock Trial Tournament. The efforts of the members of the bar have been extraordinary and they are the foundation which allows this program to flourish. Your individual commitment to public legal education and public service is much appreciated and exemplary.

This has been another very successful year both in the number of schools and students participating but also in educating the public about the legal and social principles that guide our society. The continued success of the Suffolk County High School Mock Trial Tournament is a direct result of the commitment of the attorneys in our county. Individuals such as you, who give their time and share their wisdom, cannot be praised sufficiently. Your commitment has made this year's tournament, and all of its accomplishments, possible.

Again, please allow me to express the gratitude of all of the students who participated in the tournament and who cannot thank you directly. It is my hope that you found your experience as rewarding as theirs. It is also my hope that you will seriously consider volunteering your time and efforts next year to this worthwhile endeavor.

Very truly yours,

Alan Todd Costell
